Dr. George L. West, the medical xaminer, who was called to the home Mrs. Eddy and who filed the death rtificate, made the following state-

Eddy early this morning and arrived there in my automobile about 9.30. I was met at the stoop by Calvin A. Frye and others of the household, who directed me to a bed chamber on the second floor. Here I met Mrs. Sargers

HER FORTUNE OF $2,000,000

Has Been Given to the Cause of Christian Science.

'Science and Haeith and the Key to Scriptures."

LIFE SKETCH OF DECEASED.

unted on an eminence about halfway between the city proper and St. Paul's school. She made many changes and improvements on the property, and lived there until her departure to make her home at the beautiful residence prepared for her at Chstnut Hill, a Hoston suburb. This change made on Sunday, January 26, 1908, was entirely without previous announcement. There were several great receptions at Pleasunt View to members of the Mother church who came up from Beston during their streets.

Boston during their attendance at the annual meetings of the church. The immense gatherings, numbering thou-sands of persons, were briefly addressd by Mrs. Eddy from a balcony of the

During the last decade, however,

Throughout the time of her residence at Pleasant View it was Mrs. Eddy's custom to take a daily drive, accompanied by Calvin Frye, her sec-elary, through certain favorite streets of the city and suburbs.

During Mrs. Eddy's life here she was the first to respond to Red Cross and other appeals for aid and made trequent gitts to local and state chariles and educational interests and for sublic purposes. One of her first ben-factions in Concord was to provide swaps for the pends in the public parks of the city. At the last of her residence at Pleasant View Mrs. Eddy almost en-tirely withdrew from any public ap-pearances save for her daily drives.

of years; his daughter, Mary Baker Glover, and George W. Baker, a nephew of Mrs. Eddy, against Calvin A. Frye, and aime others, who were alleged to possess a control over Mrs. Eddy and her property of which they were making undue use. Subsequently, E. J. Foster Eddy, an adopted son of Mrs. Eddy, and Frederick W. Baker, another salesty, and fired. The Met. of

I was called to the home of Mrs.

Venerable Leader Passed Away at Her Home Saturday Night

Was Born in Bow, N. H., July 16, I321, and was in Her Ninetieth Year-Announcement of the Death Made at Sunday Morning Service of the Mother Church at Boston-Life Sketch of Great Teacher and Leader.

"Natural Causes," Says Medical Exam-- iner.

gent.

"I found the body of a woman of about 90 years, lying on the bed, her hands crossed over her breast. The face was somewhat wasted but kindly and in repose. I talked with Mr. Frye, who said, "Mrs. Eddy had been in error about a week and passed away very quiet." Mr. Frye described the symptoms and spoke of an inflammation of the chest which led me to the conclusion that pneumonia had been the contributory cause of death." Announcement of Mrs. Eddy's Death. The news of Mrs. Eddy's death was made known simultaneously by Judge Clifford P. Smith, first reader of the mother church, at the close of the morning service and by Alfred Farlow, of the Christian Science publication committee, in a statement to the

According to Mr. Parlow, Mrs. Eddy passed away at a quarter before 11 o'clock last night.

Fell Quietly Asleep Saturday Night. "She had been indisposed for about tilne days," said Mr. Farlow's state-ment, "but had been up and dressed, and as late as Thursday transacted some business with one of the officials of the Christian Science church. She took her daily afternoon drive until two days before her going. Saturday night she fell quietly asleep and those around her could hardly at first realize that she had gone. Her thought was clear until the last and she left no final messages. final messages.

"No physician was in attendance, but she had the assistance of the students who comprised her household. With her at the time of her departure were Calvin A. Frye. Mrs. Laura E. Sargent, Mrs. Ella S. Bathvon, Rev. Irving C. Tomlinson, her corresponding secretary, William R. Rathvon, and her secretary, Adam H. Dickey.

"No arrangements regarding the time or the place of her burial have yet been decided upon. It is well known to her household that she believed in simplicity on such occasions." and in compliance with this knowledge it is expected that the service will be private and of a simple nature, con-sisting probably of prayer and read-ings from the Eible with some brief selections from the Christian Science morning. Dr. West after investigation prenounced the death due to 'natural enuses' and issued the customary cor-Son in South Dakota Notified, "A telegrain was sent to her son, George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., ap-prising him of his mother's demise and Mrs. Eddy was born in Bow, N. H., July 16, 1821, and was therefore in her 50th year."

The service was as usual and the two readers, Judge Smith and Mrs. Leland readers, Jodge Smith and Mrs. Leland T. Powers, presented the sermon of the day, "God the Only Cause and Creator," with voices that were without emotion and had no suggestion of andness.
The routine service, which closes with a byun, the reading of the "Sci-field of labor it was a departure, so-chally, publicly and finally, from the routine of such material modes as so-clety and our societies demand. Rumore are rumors—nothing more. I am still with you on the field of battle, to the absolute demonstration of Chris-tian Science. You can well afford to give me up since you have in my last

Only those who sat through the ser-rice with the knowledge of the momentous event of a few hours before heard the benediction. Then the greater part o, the congregation left their seals n There were no words of sor row, though many a lear was shed. The great organ pealed its recessional joyously and triumphantly as ever No Change in Methods of Conducting he service the question of future lead-ership was referred to with great re-erive by the leaders and others. Those who expressed a view said that there would be no change in the methods of who expressed a view said that there would be no change in the methods of carrying on the work that Mrs. Eddy's teachings and instruction would be implicitly followed and that the church that she founded would continue to grow in the future as it had in the past. It was pointed out that with the exception of a few routine that the exception of a few routine that the exception of the church work had been relinquished to the church work had the church work had been relinquished to the church work and the church work had the church work had the church work had the church work and the church work had the Cabled Paragraphs Fort de France, Martinique, Dec. 4.

The American cruiser Dixie and the torpedo boat flotilla sailed Saturday.

London, Dec. 4 .- The Duke of Manchester, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, was said to be slightly improved Saturday.

Paris. Dec. 4.—The Carnegie hero-fund commission for France yester-day made its awards for acts of heroism performed during the past year. Eighteen received sums ranging from Lendon, Dec. 4.—Sir Thomas Vesey Strong, the lord mayor, and the cor-poration of the city of London, yes-terday gave a luncheon at Guildhall to 750 American sailors from the visiting fleet at Gravesend and Weymouth.

Colon, Dec. 4.—A strong north wind which has been blowing since Friday, and high seas caused a suspension of shipping at this port Saturday. The American cruiser Tacoma found shel-ter at Portobello. Two steamers of the United Fruit company and others which were lying at Cristobal, put out

Hong Kong, Dec. 4.—The authorities at Peking has ordered a Chinese flotilla to Macao, where there was a revelt recently in the Portuguese army and navy, forcing the governor to make certain concessions, including the driving out. driving out of the religious orders. The Italian cruiser Cambria has also gone thither to protect Italian inter-

Berlin, Dec. 4 .- Steps to guard Ger-Berlin, Dec. 4.—Steps to guard Ger-man defense from the espionage of aviators were taken yesterday by the ministry of war, which issued regula-tions on the subject. Aeroplanes and airships are prohibited from sailing above or within ten kilometres of the fortresses without a written permit from the military authorities. Often-ders will be argested upon landing and treated as suspected spies, being treated as suspected spies, being searched for photographs and draw-ings of the fortifications. A kilometre is equal to .621 of a mile.

LAST SESSION 61ST CONGRESS OPENS THIS NOON

Today's Session Will Be Brief-Full Quota of Members Expected:

Washington, Dec. 4.—At noon to-norrow the second and closing session Washington, Dec. 4.—Former Sena-tor William E. Chandler of New Hampshire, who was counsel for Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy's children in the of the Sixty-first congress will begin, and tonight practically a full quotation of members of both branches is in Washington awaiting the formalities which will attend the resumption of legislative activity. Mary Baker G. Eddy's children in the litigation over her estate, said here tonight that he believed her fortune—nearly $2,000.000—has been given to the cause of Christian Science.

"Her difficulties with her son, George W. Glover, and his family, and with her adopted son, Dr. F. G. Foster (Eddy), were under my direction as counsel for them, adjusted in a family settlement in 1909, and doubtless nearly all her large estate of nearly $2,000,000 has been given to promote Chris-

The session tomorrow will be brief. After the call or order in both the house and senate, the appointment of a joint committee to notify the president that the Sixty-first congress is ready to resume business, recess will be taken as a tribute to members who re-

000 has been given to promote Chris-tian Science and also the perpetual use as a religious ritual of her book, TRAIN STRUCK AUTOMOBILE. Countess De Nicolay and Her Son and Chauffeur Killed.

Le Mans, France, Dec. 4 .- The Coun-Le Mans, France, Dec. 4.—The Countess De Nicolay and her son and the chauffeur in charge of an automobile in which they were driving were killed today at a railroad crossing near here. The automobile was struck by Concord, N. H., Dec. 4.—The farm upon which Mrs. Eddy was born July 16, 1821, in the neighboring town of Row, is but a short distance from the Concord line, so that many of her train. Gasoline from the automobile spuried over the front car-rigaes of the train, setting them on fire. The passengers were thrown into but the flames were quickly

> Death of Right Rev. Monsignor Patrick J. Harkins.

Holyoke, Mass., Dec. 4.—The Right Rev. Monsignor Patrick J. Harkins for forty years pastor of St. Jerome's church, died late tonight at the House of Providence Rospital, an institution which he founded. He was 77 years of age and had been affing for some time. his death being in large measure due to his declining years.

the benefit of the children of her son George W. Glover, and this also still

Some months after this withdrawal of the next friends' suit it was an-nounced that satisfactory financial arnounced that satisfactory infancial arrangements had been made by Mrs. Eddy and her trustees with her son and foster-son, and last summer Mrs. Eddy was visited at Brookline by her grandsons, George W. Glover and Andrews Chem. drew J. Glover

The news of Mrs. Eddy's death first reached Concord through the Associat-ed Press. The heads of the local church did not receive the official no-tification until afternoon today, so that the morning service at the local church was held without knowledge of the death of its founder.

GEORGE WASHINGTON GLOVER Starts from South Dakota to Attend His Mother's Funeral.

Lead, S. D., Dec. 4.-With his daugh ter Mary and his son, George W., Jr., George Washington Glover, son of Mrs. Baker Eddy, left tonight for Boston to altend his mother's funeral, which he believed would be held at Tilton, N.

They go in answer to summons from a member of Mrs. Eddy's household re-ceived today. The message simply stated that Mrs. Eddy "passed away

The Glover children had autograph letters this week from their grand-mother, who declared her health excellent, and sent Christmas greetings and spoke of her Christmas plans. While it is generally exepcted here that Mr. Glover will start a legal con-test for a share in his mother's estate, he refused today to discuss the case. In Lead he is reputed to have received a quarter of a million dollars in trust two years ago in return for agreeing not to contest the estate. It is said, however, that former United States Senator Chandler recently in-timated in letters received here that the reported gettlemnt was not as Glover had no right to settle for ADOPTED SON DR. EDDY Looked for a Further Demonstration of Mrs. Eddy's Teaching.

Waterbury, Vt., Dec. 4.—Dr. E. J. Foster Eddy, the adopted son of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, received the first word of her death from a report of the Associated Press today. He expressed himself as wholly unprepared for the Associated States. for the news and said:
"I was not only not expecting Mrs.

Eddy to pass away but I was looking another relative, joined the list of for a further demonstration of her 'next friends."

Former Secretary of the Navy Will- but it seems to me that there was a but it seems to me that there was a lack of mental or spintual support which those without her knowledge of Christian Science cannot understand. This is the severest blow that Christian Science has received."

Asked if he would attend the funeral of Mrs. Eddy, Dr. Eddy replied that he would if notified of its time and class by members of the house-livid

Found Dead Sitting on a Sofa Ever Undertaken

FOR MANY YEARS.

"OLD MAID WILLIAMS,"

As Miss Emily Williams of New Milford Was Known Among the Townspeople, Had Been Dead Two Days.

New Milford, Conn., Dec. 4.—Miss Emily Williams, 70 years old known among the townspeople for many years as "Old Maid Williams," was found dead in her home here today. Miss Williams had led the life of a her-mitess for many years and was permitess for many years, and was peculiar in many ways.

Hands and Face Gnawed by Rats. When found she was sitting upright on an old sofa and had probably been dead for two days. Both of her hands, which were hanging down by her sides,

First of the Kind

HAD LED LIFE OF A HERMITESS FINANCED BY CHARLES FROH-MAN AND A LONDON SYNDICATE.

THEATRICAL INNOVATION

47,000 Mile Tour of the World by Kyrle Bellew and Company in a Fast Steamship of 3,000 Tons.

New York, Dec. 4 .- Kyrle Bellew and a company of fifty will start from London August 15 next for a 47,000 mile tour of the world in a chartered steamtour of the world in a chartered steam-ship, so Charles Frohman announced tonight. A London syndicate and Mr. Frohman will finance this ambitious theatrical imporation, which, it is esti-mated, will take two and one-half years to complete

Play in Every Port Where English is Spoken.

According to the announcement, the

HOLIDAY SHOPPING HAS BEGUN

Christmas choosing is the business of the hour.

There is no better time to buy a present than today. Christmas lines are complete, stocks are at their best, clerks have leisure to display goods to the fullest advantage.

Styleland, Toyland, Homeland, there are countless attractions in al

The merely ornamental, the practical, things to wear, to look at, to amuse, to instruct, articles for personal, home and office outfitting, now is the time to secure them.

Would you learn where the best and most advantageously priced gifts are obtainable?

O COM D MOS 6 COM O COM D COM D

Was Worth $40,000. Miss Williams was well to do, her wealth being estimated at $40,000. One of her habits was to carry around a package of bankbooks under her skiris, but these books, which are known to have represented deposits in local and Bridgeport savings banks, could not be found when a search was produced to the horse late today. The made of the home late today. The search will be continued tomorrow, as it is believed that they have been hidden around the house

LITTLE IMPROVEMENT IN FRENCH FLOOD CONDITIONS Five Villages Overwhelmed by Collapse of Dyke.

ing the night a dyke collapsed and five villages to the southeast of the city were overwhelmed in a few min-utes. Several thousand families by this disaster were added to the al-ready large number of sufferers. No easualties are reported.

$20,000 MONUMENT

TO JOHN ERICSSON. Inventor and Builder of the Famous Ironglad Monitor.

Meriden, Conn., Dec. 4,-The Swedish American Republican State league, as a meeting held in Hartford Saturday formulated plans for the rulsing of a fund of $20,000 to build a monument to John Ericsson, inventor and builder of the little ironclad Monitor which defeated the confederate ironclad Mer-rimac in Hampton Roads March 9th, cases, the naval academy authorities 1862, in one of the most spectacular naval engagements of the Civil war. The executive committee of the league cently reported are attributed. They is authorized to direct the campaign for subscriptions which will be con-ducted through all the Swedish societies and chruches in the state. The question regarding the proposed location of the mornment to the famous nventor will be taken up at a later

SCOTCH FARM HAND INHERITS A MILLION DOLLARS.

John McCluskev Arrives in New York to Take the Money.

New York, Dec. 4.—Three short seeks and John M. McCluskey, a farm weeks are John M. McCluskey, a farm hand, was leading a wagen with turnips on a little farm at Bushy, just back of Glasgow, Scotland, and woudering how he'd get through the week on two shillings and sixpence. Saturday McCluskey, accompanied by Andrew Wilson, a New York lawyer, was a passenger on the steamship Campanit from England, and comes to take it from England, and comes to tak title to a fortune estimated at a mil-lion dollars, left him by his brother, a paper box manufacturer in this city. The brothers lost track of each other for 18 years, and the lawyers had a bard time locating McCluskey to tell SUES DR. COOK FOR $16. Editor Wants Return of Money He Paid to Hear Arctic Man's Lecture.

Cincinnati. C., Dec. 4.—F. George Mass. The identification was made by his father, Olin W. Cutter, an architect in the Essex building, Boston who served a claiming that the amount lie paid for four series to hear Cook tell how he reached the pole.

Now Cook has confessed that the discovery was principally in his mind.

Mass. The identification was made by his father, Olin W. Cutter, an architect in the Essex building, Boston who came here for that purpose.

The victim, who had been ill for five weeks with nervous prostration, was graduated from Harvard in 1965. He was a clerk in the Eoston office of N.
W. Harris & Co. bankers. Young discovery was principally in his mind.

Now Cook has confessed that the discovery was urincipally in his mind Mohr seys he obtained the mores falsely and wants it returned. Mohr cre-ted a serection when he named the defendant but Smire Mycre wrote a writ summoning the Prooklyn physician to answer the action.

French Give Farewell Dinner to Rear Admiral Howard.

Brest, Dec. 4 .- Admiral Aubert gav a farewell dinner tonight to Rear Admiral Howard, commanding the fourth division of the American Atlantic fleet, and the captains of the battleships, on Senator Elkins Improving.

Weshington, Dec. 4.—Senator Elkins of West Virginia was pronounced improving after a consultation of physicians held today for the purpose of determining how the recovery of the senator might be expedited. No operation was performed and it was said that none was necessary. The senator is permitted to sit up in bed and the doctors said be was making satisfactory progress.

Shop early, before the real holiday rush begins!

Study The Bulletin's advertising columns today!

had been attacked by rais, as had been vessel will be fitted with a theater, and both dramas and musical comedy will be produced, either on board or where stops are of sufficient duration at inland points.

It is proposed to visit every port where there is an English settlement, including some where a professional company has never appeared. After company has never appeared. After leaving London, the first stop will be Gibraltar, and from there the coast line of Africa will be followed closely. Stops will be made at all the prominent settlements between Gibraltar and Cape Town, their length to be determined by the patronage. In large English-speaking colonies like British South Africa it is proposed to leave the ship for a month or so for inland the ship for a month or so for inland

Two Months' Stop in South Africa.

After two months in South Africa Paris, Dec. 4.—The flood continues serious along the vallevs of the Loire, Rhone and Caronie, and there is but slight improvement elsewhere. All the country to the northwest of Nantes, to the extent of about ten miles in length and five in breadth, is a shee of water.

After two months in South Africa the companies will again board the chip and steam up the east coast of Africa and Madagascar. Thence they will follow the coast to Arabia, Indo-China, the Straits Settlements, the East Indian, Australia, Tasmania, the Philippines, China and Japan, and thence to San Francisco vs. the South Sea Islands.

Fast Steamer of 3,000 Tons.

The vessel will be a fast steamship of at least 3,000 tons, and to assist in defraying the expenses of the tour she will carry cargoes and extra passen-gers between ports. The theatrival ompany will be largely American. THREE NEW CASES TYPHOID

AT ANNAPOLIS ACADEMY One is Midshipman Philip D. Brach of Connecticut.

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 4.—Midshipmer Garnett Hullings of Pennsylvania, Phil-ip D. Brach of Connecticut and Ray H. Wakeman of Kunsus, the last named a substitute guard on the football team, were taken to the naval hospital today cently reported are attributed. They declare further that those who have succumbed within the past few days should have been in bed days ago, but hospital.

DUEL WITH SWORDS

FOUGHT BY TORCHLIGHT French Dramatic Critic Punctured Through the Lung.

Paris. Dec. 4.-A duel with swords Paris, Dec. 4.—A duel with swords was fought last night in the outskirts of Paris by the light of forches and Automobile lamps. The principals in the duel were M. Raucourt, an actor, and M. Champagne, a dramatic critic. The actor can the critic through flucing and the wounded man is said to be in a descriptor condition. The case be in a desperate condition. is now in the hands the police

BODY OF SUICIDE IDENTIFIED. Harvard Graduate Who Had Been II With Nervous Prostration.

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 1.—The body of the young man who committed sui-cide by shooting at the Hotel Wilming-ton last Thursday was identified &-day as Harold Francis Cutter, aged 28 ears, of 16 Emerson street, Brookline Mass. The identification was made by its father, Olin W. Cutter, an archi-

Cutter left home Tuesday evening removed all identification marks from the sale. This led to his identifica-

Her Ashes Scattered to the Four Winds,

St. Louis, Dec. 4.—In conformity with the dying wish of Mrs. Louisa Wallner her ashes today were scattered to the four winds from the highest point of Eads bridge. Conjointly with this ceremony, socialist and free thought tracts were distributed among those who exception. those who assembled Mrs Wallner, who was a socialist, died more than a week ago. She was 40 years old. Julius P. Schmidt, a friend, conducted today's service, which was without orthodox religious form.

from New York.

Condensed Telegrams

"Sandy" Stuart, Colored, was frozen

In a Fight at San Andreas, Mexico, the government lost 20 killed and wounded.

Jose M. Fjujeras, chief judge of the supreme court of Porto Rico, died at San Juan, Continuous Rains Have Renewed the

The Department Stores of Philadelbristmas holidays. The Body of Tedro Montt, late president of Chili, was embarked from Bremen on a Chilian cruiser to be tak-

A Steel-Cased House, blown 200 feet in the air by a dynamite explosion at Grand Rapids, Mich., hit and killed

Mrs. David Galdstein, wife of a wealthy/ man of Denver, Col., testified that she never wore a bonner, be-cause her husband will not purchase

Lewis Rowan, assistant superintenof an electric plant at Norrisgive Frank Hahn from being electro-

The Italian Minister of Foreign afnaintenance of the status que having he triple alliance on a solid base. The Seaboard Air Line Railway unnounces an increase of five per cent.

in the salary of clerks receiving $100 per month and under, who have not ceceived increases within the past 12

The Story of Marie Smith's brutal murder in Asbury Park was rehearsed before Coroner Pardy and a jury, and a verdict that the little girl met her death at the hands of a person or persons unknown was reached.

Announcement Was Made at the White house yesterday of the appointment of Frederick W. Lehmann of St. Louis to be solicitor general of the United States, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lloyd W. Bow-

A New Counterfeit $2 Silver certificate was discovered Saturday. Crief Wilkie believes that it is being widely circulated in Chicago and be middle west, and in it he recognizes the work of a counterfeiter who has given the secret service much trouble.

Surrounded by Deputies and followed by a large crowd, Joseph Wendling and the jury which is trying him on the charge of nurdering little Alma Kellner were marched over a mile hrough the streets of Louisville, Ky., from the courthouse to St. John's church, the scene of the alleged crime.

The Report of the National Banks United States in answer to the November 10, shows a decrease in loans and discounts of $16,500,000. a decrease in cash of $25,609,000, and a gain of individual deposits of $159,-000,000. The total reserve was an average of 21.18 per cent, which was 373,000,000 above the amount required

Seven Business Houses located in the heart of Petersburg, Va., were burned Saturday with a loss of ap-proximately $500,000. For a time a hotel in an adjoining block in which a large number of guests were sleep-ing was threatened, but the firemen succeeded in confining the flames to one block, which practically was wined out. WANTS HIS OPPONENT'S

ELECTION VOTE DISALLOWED E. E. Bradley of Stonington Petitions the Superior Court.

Storington, Dec. 4. E. E. Bradley of Sconington, one of the republican candidates for se-lectman of the town of Stonington, has policekily concealed their filness—some of them that they might not miss the mavy-army football game.

There are now 29 cases of thoold fever under treatment at the naval petitioned the superior court of New London county to disallow 89 votes with which H. J. Holdredge, one of member of the board, was credited. The papers were served by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs.

Sheriff J. H. Tubos.

Bradley sets forth that H. A. Stahle and the petitioners were named as candidates for the office by the republican party, while Fernando Wheeler and H. J. Holdredge were nominated by the democratic party.

The election returns for the office were announced as follows: Sighle, 898; Bradley, 591; Wheeler, 642; Holdredge, 621

The petitioner alleges that in the The petitioner alleges that in the Fourth voting district of the town Holdredge was credited with 89 votes which were illegally marked, according to chapter 250 of the public acts of 1909. He petitions that these votes be disallowed and subtracted from number of votes with which Holdredge has been credited, making the figures read 532 instead of 621.

CHINA TAKES IMPORTANT STEP. REORGANIZATION OF NAVY

Uncle of the Emperor to Have Charge of Reorganization. Pekin, Dec. 4.-An important step has just been taken by China with the object of expanding and increas-ing the efficiency of her navy. The throne today issued edicts creating a many department, which up to the present has consisted merely of a tentative board for the conduct of naval affairs. Prince Tsui Suun, uncle of the emperor, who recently paid an ex-tensive visit to the United States, has een appointed president of the new spartment, and his full recommendamy have bee napproved. The general staff of the army will be reorganized along modern lines, as proposed by General Yen-Techang.

EXPENDITURE OF $8,135,827 For Public Works at Navy Yards and Wallington, Dec. 4.—The estimates of Secretary of the Navy Meyer for the iscal year 1812, which show a saving of the Navy Meyer for the iscal year 1812, which show a saving of $5,000,000, as compared with the specialist died more than a week ago. She was at years old, alling P. Schmidt, a friend, conducted oday's service, which was without athodox religious form.

Steamship Arrivals.

At Southampton: Dec. 4, St. Louis. From New York.

The Recent Political Upheaval

AND THE CAUSES WHICH LED UP TO THE OVERTURN.

ROOSEVELT AT NEW HAVEN

Will Make His First Public Utterance on Political Matters at Chamber of Commerce Dinner, Dec. 13.

New Haven, Dec. 4.—In a letter to Col. Isaac M. Ullman, president of the New Haven chamber of commerce, before which former President Roosevelt will speak on the night of the 13th, Colonel Roosevelt states that at the dinner he will make his first public statement as to the causes that led up to the recent political upheaval, and will go into details in explaining them.

In writing of the nature of his speech, he said:
"I will make my first public utter-Emma C. Moulton, widow of Francis Moulton, an important witner in the famous trial of Henry Ward Beecher, died at Wakefield, R. I., at

Gov.-Elect Baldwin Invited to Be Present. Although Gov.-elect Simeon E. Baldwin, whose controversy with Colonel Roosevelt during the recent election attracted much notice, had been invited to attend the dinner and speak, he has not yet accepted the invitation and refuses to make known his intentions in the matter. The time Although Gov.-elect Simeon his intentions in the matter. The time set for the acceptance of invitations to the dinner expired Saturday night and the secretary of the chamber of commerce stated tonight that he had not heard from Judge Baldwin, but added that the expiration of the time limit set would not be operative in this particular case. The members of this particular case. The members of the board, it is understood, are work-ing to bring about an understanding whereby both Judge Baldwin and Col-onel Roosevelt may attend. Among the speakers will be Presi-dent Arthur T. Hadiey of Yale univer-sity.

DOOR LOCKED, WINDOWS CLOSED GAS COCK WIDE OPEN Couple Found Dead in a Room at Pennsylvania Resort. Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 4.—Peter Reeser, aged 60 years of Mechanicsburg, Pa., and a woman known as Carrie H. W. Spade, aged 31 years, and said to be from Kingston, Mass., were found dead in a room at a resort here to-day with the illuminating gas cock wide open, the door locked and the windows closed. When inmates of the place detected the odor of gas and burst open the door they found that the couple had been dead for some

The coroner's jury rendered a ver-dict of "premeditated asphixiation." Reeser has a widow at Mechanics-burg and a divorced wife and two children in Lebanon.

The woman is said to have a daughter and two sisters at Kingston, ANOTHER SHOOTING IN CHINATOWN LAST NIGHT Two Members of the Four Brothers

Society Wounded. New York, Dec. 4 .- There was another shouting in Chinatown tonight. Quong Fong, 47 years old, an Oriental grocer, and his clerk, Quong Don, 49 years old, were shot in the grocery. The clerk will probably die, for he has two bullet wounds in his back one in his head and a fourth in his right arm. The proprietor was shot in the right groin and is in a serious con-The assatlant, also an Oriental, entered the little grocery store and open-ed fire with a revolver in each hand. After firing nine shots he fled. The wounded Chinese are members of the Four Brothers society, which has had many battles with the On Leong Tong.

OBITUARY.

Francis H. Burr. Boston, Dec. 4.—Francis H. Burr, who was famous as the captain of Harvard's football team in 1908, died today after an iliness of two months, from typhoid fever. He was 24 years old, the son of Herman M. Burr of this city. He prepared for Harvard at Phillips-Andover academy and later at college made an enviable reputation as an athlete. The funeral will be at an athlete. The funeral will be at Appleton chapel, Harvard's student church, Tuesday noon. Representative Fitzgerald Stricken

With Appendicitis in Panama. New York, Dec. 4.—It became known tonight after the arrival of the party of congressmen liho had been holding hearings in the canal zone that Representative John J. Fitzgerald of Brook-iyn, a member of the party, is suffer-ing with appendicitis. He was stricken in Panama, and remained in a hospital there for a short time, but insisted on leaving and making the trip home without an operation. It is understood that an operation will now be necessary. Scotch Girl a Stowaway on Anchor

Line Steamer. New York, Dec. 4.—Annie McKean, a Scotch girl, aged 18 years, arrived in New York today, a stowaway on the Anchord liner Columbia. Her presence was discovered when the Columbia was three days out from Glasgow When confronted, she confessed that she had slipped on to the vessel while assisting a friend and children aboard. She was sent to Ell's Island and her mother in Scotland was notified.

Dr. Simon Flexner to Be Operated on for Appendicitis. New York Dec. 4.—Dr. Simon Flex-near, head of the Rockefeller Institute for medical research, is to be operated on for appendictits tomorrow in the Presbyterian hospital. This announcement was made tonight by Jerome D. Greene, general manager of the insti-tute. Mr. Capene added that the case is mild, but it was decided that an operation was advisable as a safe-

Boy's Neck Broken by a Fall. Madison, Conn., Dec. 4 .- While playing hear his home here today William Schmidding, five years of age fell, breaking his neck, death following almost instantly. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmidding.

Brig. Gen. Oliver E. Wood, U. S. A. Battimore Dec 4.—Brig. Gen, Oliver E. Wood, U. S. A. retired, died at the Johns Hopkins hospital today, follow-ing an operation for acute stomach trouble. He was born in Connections

The Fort Worth, Texas, high school was destroyed by are Less $100,000 guard against recurring attacks sixty-six years ago.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE FOUNDER DEAD

MRS. MARY BAKER GLOVER EDDY

Boston, Dec. 4.—Mrs. Mary Baker of Clover Eddy, the discoverer and founder of Christian Science, is dead. Analysis and the passing of the venerable leader, which occurred late last night at her bome at Chestnut Hill, a suburb, was made at the morning service of the mother church in this city seday.

Baker a great degree by Mrs. Eddy for some years previous to her death, though she continued to keep in close touch with those to whom she had entrusted the work and had a clear understanding of how it was being performed.

Statement by Medical Examiner.

Dr. George L. West, the medical

"Nutural causes" explains the death, according to Dr. George L. West, a district medical examiner, who was summoned a few hours after Mrs. Eddy passed away. Later Dr. West added to his statement by saying that the more temmediate cause was propally suore immediate cause was probably selections from the Christian Science selections from the Christian Science textbook. Only her relatives, her bousehold and the officials of the church are expected to be in attendance.

No Funeral Arrangements Yet Made.

Medical Examiner Called.

"There having been no physician in stendance, Dr. George L. West of Newton Cenier, medical examiner for She purchased the estate subsequently known as Pleasant View, which is sit-requesting information as to his at dence and that of his family. In Her 90th Year.

Announcement to Mother Church Congregation. There were few of the congregation at the morning service at the mother church today who knew that the life During the last decade, however, the receptions had been discontinued. In the first years of her residence in Concord Mrs. Eddy received a few students in Christian Science, most of the leader and teacher had ended.

be day. "God to Creator." with voices that the content of the service, which closes with a byun, the reading of the "Scientific Statement of Heing," and the benediction, was strictly followed at the mother church today until just be-complete the benediction Judge Smith broke through the unsal form with the following words:

"I shall now read part of a letter has our revered leader and relationship of Miscellaneous and on July 17, 1904, one of the finest church edifices in the state was dedicated under the title." The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Concord, N. H."

The structure is said to have cost upwards of $200,000, of which Mrs.

The structure is said to have cost upwards of $200,000, of which Mrs. looking to see me in my accustomed place with you, but this you must no longer expect. When I retired from the taking forward marches, breader and views and with the hope that you will follow. "'All our thoughts should be given

Smith, "were written years ago, they are true today and will continue to be true. But it becomes my duty to announce that Mrs. Eddy passed from our gight last night a quarter before 11 o'clock at her home on Chestnut Hill." 'Although these lines," said Judge This gave rise to many rumors as to her condition and surrounlings and several times reports of her death gained circulation. Partly as a result of one of these investigiations to disprove these rumors, suit was brought. March 1, 1997, in the hame of Mrs. Eddy by her "next friends," her son, George W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., whom she had not seen for a number of years; his daughter, Mary Baker

Many a Tear Shed.

the Work. As the churchgoers scattered after